

Rare Old Times

Chorus

C F C Am C F G C

Verse

C F C F C F C G G7

C F C F C F C G C

Based on songs and stories, heroes of renown
Are the passing tales and glories, that once was Dublin town
The hallowed halls and houses, the haunting children's rhymes
That once was Dublin city in the rare old times

Ring a-ring a-Rosie, as the light declines
I remember Dublin city in the rare oul' times

My name it is Sean Dempsey, as Dublin as can be Born hard and late in Pimlico, in a house that ceased to be
By trade I was a cooper, lost out to redundancy
Like my house that fell to progress, my trade's a memory

And I courted Peggy Dignan, as pretty as you please
A rogue and child of Mary, from the rebel Liberties
I lost her to a student chap, with skin as black as coal
When he took her off to Birmingham, she took away my soul

CHORUS

The years have made me bitter, the gargle dims my brain
'cause Dublin keeps on changing, and nothing seems the same
The Pillar and the Met have gone, the Royal long since pulled down
As the great unyielding concrete, makes a city of my town

Instrumental over VERSE

Fare thee fell sweet Anna Liffey, no longer can I stay
And watch the new glass cages that spring up along the Quay

My mind's too full of memories, too old to hear new chimes STOP !!!
I'm part of what was Dublin, in the rare old times

CHORUS 2x
