Instrumental kurz

Intro Instrumental over Verse

Listen all ye that hold communion with the Southern Confederates bold While I tell you of some men of the Union who In the northern ranks were enrolled; They came to Missouri in their glory and thought, at their might, we'd be dismayed; But they soon had a different story when they met Kelly's Irish Brigade
When they met with the Irish Brigade, me boys
When they with the Irish Brigade Didn't those cowardly Lincoln-ites tremble when they met with the Irish brigade?

Instrumental kurz (blau)

They have called us rebels and traitors but themselves have thrown off that name of late They were called it by the English invaders at home in the year of ninety-eight
The name to us is not a new one though Tis' one that shall never degrade Any true-hearted Irishman in the ranks of Kelly's Irish Brigade

Chorus

Instrumental over Verse and Chorus

Well they dare not call us invaders 'tis but state rights and liberties we ask;
And Missouri, we will ever defend her no matter how hard may be the task Then let the Irishmen assemble let the voice of Missouri be obeyed;
And northern fanatics will tremble when again they meet Kelly's Irish Brigade
