

Deprivation Of Illusions

Intro (Guitar + Mandoline) + Instrumental over Verse

DmDmDmDm

DmADmDmDm

Flight into a cell of glass, Escaping my distraction
Capsule against a stupid wrath, Sucked in by the reflection

CCCC

DmADmDm

Loss of independency, Doubting my identity
Her hatred is my sentence, Reducing all the sanity

Distance to her affection, Cold substance in my core
The glass is a section, Increase the lust for more
Memory falls to fragments, Discerned by a single face
Deeply depressed by remnants, Her attraction all ablaze

AmAmDmDm

DmADmDm

Collapsing intermediate stage, Burning out my young age
The final desperate calls, Echo between these walls
I resolve my intellect, Our minds can't connect
She dissects my potencies, To incorporate my faculties

Instrumental over Verse

Melancholy gnawing at my brain, Staying away from illusion
Loneliness driving me insane, Female voice causes confusion
Distorted sound strikes harmonies, Dragged down by her spell
Discordance annoys sympathies, Blowing up my cell
