Too late! Too late are they,

For young Roddy McCorley goes to die

F

On the bridge of Toome today.

Up the narrow street he stepped, So smiling, proud and young.

About the hemp-rope on his neck, The golden ringlets clung;

There's ne'er a tear in his blue eyes, Both bright and brave are they,

As young Roddy McCorley goes to die, On the bridge of Toome today.

Instrumental over Verse and Chorus

When last this narrow street he trod,, His shining pike in hand

Behind him marched, in grim array, A earnest stalwart band.

To Antrim town! To Antrim town, He led them to the fray,

But young Roddy McCorley goes to die, On the bridge of Toome today.

There's never a one of all your dead, More bravely died in fray

Than he who marches to his fate, In Toomebridge town today

True to the last! True to the last,, He treads the upwards way,

And young Roddy McCorley goes to die, On the bridge of Toome today.
