I'm lyin' in bed, I'm in room twenty-six

E H

Thinkin' on things that I've done

Like drinkin' wi' squaddies and bullin' my boots

E H E

I'm countin' the medals I've won

These hospital wards they're all drab lookin' joints

But the ceiling's as much as I see

It could do with a wee touch of paper or paint

But then again maybe that's me

Chorus:

A E

Oh sergeant is this the adventure you meant

E H

When I put my name down on the line

E A E

All that talk of computers and sunshine and skis

E H E

Oh I'm askin' you sergeant where's mine

Zwischenspiel Akk. EEE HHH EEE EEE

I've a brother in Glasgow wi' long curly hair

When I joined up he said I was daft

He says shootin' strangers just is nae his game

That brother of mine is nae saft

But I can put up wi' most things I've done in my time

I can even put up with the pains

But what do you do with a gun in your hand

When you're faced with a hundred odd wanes

Oh sergeant is this the adventure you meant

.....

Akk over Strofe

Oh sergeant is this the adventure you meant
