

Girls of the Clare

Intro Bass and Akkordeon over Verse

Em D Em
Tonight I'm headed out on a tear
Em D Em
My throat is thirsty, there's grease in may hair
Em D A
I'm out with the noise and the boys and the dares
Em D Em
To find us the girls of the clare

Forget what you know of envy and lust
Forgotten two sins are lucky for aus
Capital Emmerich just to the south
To find aus the girls of the clare

It's time to play the usual game
With people without a conscience of shame
To wake up alone, you're only to blame
When out with the girls of the clare

Gitarre/Drums ab hier

I'll probably spend a whole week of pay
There's more in the bank, so I'll be okay
It's Worth the whole thing for a roll in the hay
With one of the girls of the clare

G D G
Tell me, are your ready ?
G C G
Tell me, do you dare?
G C G
Forty-six miles of emerald isle
Em D Em
Waitin' for the girls of the clare

Instrumental like Intro

Tonight I'll find the special one,
The one wide-eyed, on limerick sun
She'll tell of the girls with the curls that she's done
With fun with the girls of the Clare

She's finally found her handsome lad a one to bring home to mother and dad not like the pub boys and usual cabs who run with the girls of the clare

Tell me, are your ready ?
Tell me, do you dare?
Forty-six miles of motorway
Waitin' for the girls of the clare

To find us the girls of the clare

Bass and Drums

I'm searching for that special mate
And soon to wear it I just can't wait
A sizeable dowry to be great
Thanks to the girls of the clare
