

The Valley Of The Shadow Of The Death

Intro: Dm

Mandoline

 Dm C
Last night I lay all in my dreams,
 Dm C
when a rap at the door it startled me.
 Dm C
And I heard those footsteps on the stairs,
 F C Dm
And I bade her; please come in.

 Dm F
Come in, come in, my roving friend.
 Dm C Dm
Come in and rest a while.
 Dm F
For you've been gone so very long,
 Dm C Dm
it's nice to see you smile.
 Dm F
Come in, come in, my wandering friend.
 Dm C Dm
Accept my welcome home.
 Dm F
I hope you can stay a long, long while
 F C Dm
before you have to go.

Ab hier alle

And she walked across the room to me,
and then she sat right down with me,
and told me that she had to leave.
She could not stay for long.

A child he held into his arms,
a child that I knew well through time,
and told me that he had to leave.
He had to take him home.

CHORUS

Instrumental Guitar over Verse 2x

You must come back to me again.
Accept the welcome I extend.
I will not let you go this time,
if only in my dreams
if only in my dreams
if only in my dreams.
Come to me in my dreams.

And yeah, though you walk ever on,
may your heart be not weary but strong.
And yeah, though you walk ever on,
through the valley of the shadow of death.

And yeah, though you walk ever on,
may your heart be not weary but strong.
And yeah, though you walk ever on,
through the valley of the shadow of death,
through the valley of the shadow of death,
through the valley of the shadow of death.
